Remarks

Discover the perfect canvas for your dream home on this beautiful 1.98-acre lot located off Reynolds Dr in Brighton Township. Nestled among majestic pine trees, this serene parcel offers a tranquil setting with frontage on a shared pond, ideal for those seeking a peaceful retreat. The land has already been surveyed and features a good perk test. While a well and septic system are needed, natural gas is readily available, providing convenience for future development. This prime location boasts proximity to several local attractions and amenities, making it an attractive choice for prospective buyers. Enjoy easy access to Brighton Recreation Area, offering extensive hiking trails, fishing spots, and outdoor activities. The charming downtown Brighton, with its vibrant shops, restaurants, and community events, is just a short drive away. Additionally, top-rated schools and convenient access to major highways make this a desirable spot for families and commuters alike. Embrace the opportunity to create your custom sanctuary in a picturesque setting with the perfect blend of natural beauty and modern convenience. This lot is ready to welcome your vision to life. Please note Summer & Winter taxes are estimated and subject to change.
